OFFICIAL PRESS KIT | 2026

ABOUT

Jayhuncho is a 20-year-old rapper from Teaneck, New Jersey, building a sound rooted in rhythm and flow. His music moves with an effortless cadence - each bar landing with intention, each hook designed to stay. Still early in his journey, Jayhuncho is already stacking a catalog that reflects someone who raps with purpose: not just for the moment, but for the people around him and the ones still coming up.
